

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, the citizens of West Virginia regularly experience threats from severe weather including excess rainfall, flooding, and thunderstorms; and
- Whereas, severe weather impacts every individual in every region of the state, affecting schools, businesses, personal lives and the economy on a local and state level; and
- Whereas, the State of West Virginia, Emergency Management Division identifies severe weather and flooding as some of the costliest types of natural disasters in West Virginia, in terms of lives lost, injuries and property damage; and
- Whereas, the loss of life and property during severe weather can be greatly reduced if West Virginians take appropriate preparedness measures before, during and after severe weather strikes; and
- Whereas, Flood Safety and Severe Weather Awareness Week gives the State of West Virginia the opportunity to raise awareness about the importance of preparing for and understanding severe weather in West Virginia, and to encourage all citizens to better prepare their homes, businesses, and communities for severe weather of all types; and
- Whereas, the State of West Virginia, Emergency Management Division, in conjunction with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's National Weather Service, and Ready West Virginia, is observing Flood Safety and Severe Weather Awareness Week on March 21 through 25; and
- Whereas, the West Virginia Emergency Management Division, in cooperation with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's National Weather Service, Ready West Virginia and other local, state and federal agencies, is committed to providing flood safety and severe weather preparedness information to citizens throughout the state.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim March 21-25, 2022 as:

Flood Safety and Severe Weather Awareness Week

in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance by practicing their severe weather emergency plan during the Statewide Tornado Safety drill on Tuesday, March 22, 2022.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Tenth day of March, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Twenty-Two, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Ninth year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
