

Proclamation

by Governor Jim Justice

- Whereas, West Virginians face weather threats each year from winter weather and conditions associated with it such as snow and ice storms, flooding from rapid snow melts, and extended power outages; and
- Whereas, winter weather impacts every individual in every region of the state, affecting schools, businesses, personal lives and the economy on a local and state level; and
- Whereas, the State of West Virginia, Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management identifies winter weather as dangerous in West Virginia; and
- Whereas, the loss of life and property during winter weather can be greatly reduced if West Virginians take appropriate preparedness measures before, during and after winter weather strikes; and
- Whereas, Winter Weather Awareness Week gives the State of West Virginia the opportunity to raise awareness about the importance of preparing for and understanding winter weather in West Virginia, and to encourage all citizens to better prepare their homes, businesses, and communities for winter weather of all types; and
- Whereas, the State of West Virginia, Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management, in conjunction with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's National Weather Service, is observing Winter Weather Awareness Week on November 18-22; and
- Whereas, the West Virginia Division of Homeland Security and Emergency Management, in cooperation with the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's National Weather Service, and other local, state and federal agencies is committed to providing winter weather preparedness information to citizens throughout the state.

Now, Therefore, Be it Resolved that I, Jim Justice, Governor of the Great State of West Virginia, do hereby proclaim November 18-22, 2019 as:

Winter Weather Awareness Week in the Mountain State and encourage all citizens to join me in this observance by preparing their winter weather emergency plan.

In Witness Whereof, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of West Virginia to be affixed.

Done at the Capitol, City of Charleston, State of West Virginia, this the Fourteenth day of November, in the year of our Lord, Two Thousand Nineteen, and in the One Hundred Fifty-Seventh year of the State.

Jim Justice
Governor
