West Virginia Disaster Recovery Centers Closed Due to Weather in Upshur and Lewis

The FEMA established Disaster Recovery Centers (DRCs) will be closed on August 11, 2026 due to severe weather.

CHARLESTON, W.Va. — The two (2) Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA) DRCs will be closed due to severe weather around the region on Tuesday, August 11, 2026.

The established locations are located at:

- 37 Elizabeth St. Weston, WV 26452
- 21 E. Main St. Buckhannon, WV 26201.

Out of an abundance of caution, West Virginia Emergency Management Decision (WVEMD) alongside FEMA, have closed the DRC today to ensure the safety of survivors traveling to DRCs along with staff at the facility.

The DRC locations are scheduled to reopen tomorrow, Wednesday, August 12, 2026 at 7:00 a.m.

WVEMD encourages residents to stay safe as severe weather conditions are possible today, and throughout the week. Residents are encouraged to stay tuned into their local news channels, emergency management agencies, and weather reports to be prepared for impending weather conditions.

For further information regarding the DRC closure, or for any additional information please contact WVEMD at 304-558-5380, online at emd.wv.gov or via Facebook.

The FEMA helpline is also available for flood survivors at 800-621-3362 or can apply online, or check your application status at DisasterAssistance.gov.
